Maria Deslis

720-838-0478   github.com/eternalearth888   mdeslis@gmail.com

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY/OBJECTIVES

Creative software developer with three years experience programming in C# .NET, SQL, and Full-Stack Development in an Agile/Scrum environment. Supportive and enthusiastic team player dedicated to result driven processes and efficiently resolving project issues. Skilled at team collaboration while working independently in remote environments.

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Adjunct Professor, Colorado School of Mines, Golden,CO   Jan 2018-May 2018
- Working with a team of instructors, each with their own section, and the Computer Science department teaching college level advanced programming concepts to students of all majors at Colorado School of Mines

Full Stack .Net Developer, Clean Energy Collective, Louisville,CO   Mar 2016 - Apr 2017
- Engaged as the sole mid-level developer within a multi-discipline product development team of software developers, database administrators, Quality Assurance, Business Analysts, and Project Managers
- Helped develop a solar power web application for monitoring the status and data feed from solar panels for utility and end-user customers
- Helped develop a web application for corporate personnel (IT to Sales) to remotely configure the external solar power applications
- Mentored other developers in creating the Android mobile versions of the internal/external applications
- Created reporting feature for external application allowing utilities to gather all the data they can from solar powers; I used SQL Joins to create new tables and views, LINQ in the .NET Environment to grab data as requested by the user, and bootstrap and html and javascript for the web end development
- Performed defect analysis and code rework using debugging tools in Visual Studio and Chrome and studying data when necessary
- Performed analysis of new feature proposals and recommendations to Business team
- Received corporate "Hot-Shot" award for rapid defect troubleshooting

Full Stack Software Developer, Tyler Technologies, Lakewood,CO   Jan 2015 - Mar 2016
- Junior Developer within a multi-discipline development team of software developers, quality assurance, business, analysts, and project managers
- Performed defect analysis, code rework and new features code for Parcel Tax Management software used by for county offices nationwide
- Increased efficiency for the county offices in their parcel tax management process, resulting in increased customer base by gaining county offices in the state of GA who wanted to do the same
- Acquired proficiency in Full Stack .Net Development and LINQ
- Received 2nd place Creative Computing Award in the corporate Tax Division for the creation of GUI windows for client customers to visualize a full breakdown of their parcel taxes

Full Stack Web Developer, LDS Executive Coaching, Superior, CO   Jan - Mar 2014
- Created a full function corporate client website utilizing HTML, CSS, Javascript and PHP, resulting in old and new clientele being able to reach him
- Integrated client database streams and website utilizing WampServer utility
- Actively pursued personal knowledge of Secure Forms, PHP prepared statements

SKILLS/STRENGTHS

Development Paradigms: Agile, Full Stack
SW Languages : .Net, C#, Java, C/C++, SQL, Fortran, Linux
Web Design : HTML, CSS, Javascript, PHP, AngularJS, Ajax
Development Environments: Visual Studio, Microsoft SQL Server Management Studio, Gimp

Maria Deslis

720-838-0478   github.com/eternalearth888   mdeslis@gmail.com

Operating Systems : Windows, Linux/Unix
Intl Languages : Greek, French

EDUCATION

MS Technology, Media, and Society, CU Boulder   Beginning Fall 2018

BS Math and Computer Science, Colorado School of Mines   Dec 2014